| ReturnReference | Explanation |
|----------------------------|---|
| Schedule F, Part I, Line 2 | Due Diligence: Prior to awarding the grant, the organization can conduct due diligence on the grantee to assess their financial stability, track record, and capacity to manage the funds effectively. Budget Approval: Prior to disbursing funds, the organization can require the grantee to submit a detailed budget outlining how the funds will be used. This budget can be reviewed and approved by the organization to ensure alignment with the grant's intended purpose. Site Visits: Periodic site visits by representatives of the organization to the grantee's location in Spain and Costa Rica can provide firsthand insights into the progress of the project, verify the appropriate use of funds, and assess the impact of the grant. Document Verification: The organization can request and verify invoices, receipts, and other supporting documentation related to expenses incurred by the grantee. This can help confirm that the funds are being spent as intended. Regular Communication: Establishing regular communication channels with the grantee, including progress reports, updates, and ongoing discussions about the project's status, can help identify any issues early and ensure that the project aligns with the organization's goals. Documentation Retention: Both the organization and the grantee should maintain thorough records of all financial transactions, correspondence, reports, and any other relevant documents for future reference and compliance checks. Financial Reporting: The organization can require regular financial reports from the grantee organizations in Spain and Costa Rica. These reports should detail how the funds are being used, including a breakdown of expenses, receipts, and any financial documentation. |

| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b | A full copy of the Form 990 is provided to the entire board prior to filing with the Internal Revenue Service. |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c | The organization's conflict of interest policy covers any director, principal officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest. In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists. Each covered person shall annually sign a statement which affirms such person: has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy, has read and understands the policy, has agreed to comply with the policy, and understands that the corporation is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes. |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 | The Executive Director's salary was determined by taking into consideration the responsibilities associated with his role as Executive Director while staying within our organization's budget constraints. The determination of the Executive Director's salary involved review and approval process by the governing board at that time. Other officers listed on this return had compensation approved by the Executive Director in the areas of Research (Laura Vanopdenbosch) and Development (Karyna Duran) based on responsibilities for the role and allowable budget at that time. Neither were compensated for their roles as board officers during 2022. |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19 | The organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available upon request. |
